Anthony Quintano/CC-BY 2.0 While different fox breeds have different colorings, in general foxes are small canine mammals with a full coat of fur, sharp ears, long bodies and distinctive bush tails. Foxes walk on all fours and have small heads with long snouts and sharp teeth. Foxes are small mammals; depending on the breed, they can weigh from 6-25 pounds. Red foxes, which are the most iconic fox breed, have bright orange-red fur with some black, white and brown accents. Gray foxes have mostly gray skin with some red, white or black details, while acrylic foxes tend to be completely white, except for eyes, nose and paws. Ten months after the birth of a son, Noah, Megan Fox is pregnant again! (It's probably at least three months since she made the statement.) Jessica Simpson's daughter Maxwell was just seven months old when the mother announced she was pregnant again with her son Ace. Jessica admitted her son was a surprise, but Megan said she always wanted a big family, so she may have planned her pregnancy so her children could be close by age. Experts advise a woman to wait at least 18 months before becoming pregnant again to allow her body to return to its shape before the baby and prepare for another pregnancy. But many mothers swear that their children are close to the age known as babies. That way Mom and Dad can get through all the hard years at the same time. You're still used to changing diapers and moving without sleep, so it's less of a shock to your system. Bonus: since the eldest is still so young when the baby #2 comes, it is less likely that he/she is jealous, or that famous brother and sister rivalry so many parents worry about. Soon they will also enjoy the same activities, so you do not need to entertain each of them individually. And they will go to the same school at the same time for quite a few years, making it convenient to pick up and leave. Also, many diaries and classes offer discounts for siblings, so it's also money saving. Speaking of money, strollers, car seats, clothes – everything is so expensive. So it's nice that you can recycle gears easily without sitting in a warehouse for years, taking up space. And for working mothers, it's great to take a long break for children, instead of having a career interrupted several times, which can make it harder to climb the corporate ladder. Of course, one of the biggest disadvantages of children close to age is healthy! You're going to have a lot more stress and less sleep! But if you don't overload, there are many advantages to going Jessica and Megan's way. TELL US: What do you think is the ideal age between children? Photo Megan Fox, courtesy of the prison. Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green split. The former couple had been together for 10 years before splitting at the end of 2019. They share three together – Noah Shannon Green, 7, Bodhi Bodhi Green, 6 and Green Road River, 4. On November 1, Fox, who is now dating musician Machine Gun Kelly, called out her ex for sharing a photo in which their youngest son is called an attempt to portray her as a missing mother. In August, Green copied Fox's caption about his new girlfriend and used it for the post for his children, a move that was seen as petty by fans of the former couple. When Green confirmed their split in May, he seemed far from bitter about the split. In fact, he said No one did anything wrong when rumors surfaced that Fox had cheated. Fox and Green's recent social media interactions raise the question: why are things suddenly pushing? If we look at the terms of their separation, it will be better understood. With Brian Austin Green in May. In the episode, he said they were trying to break up. He said the split happened in 2019, noting that they made the decision early not to comment on the breakup, but he wanted to be able to clean up everything that was going on. I wanted to say it out of my mouth. I wanted people to hear everything from me, and that's it, he said. I don't want to talk about it anymore. The Greens revealed that the decision to split came after Fox was out of the country filming a film for five weeks. When she returned, she reportedly told him she felt more alone and wanted to explore those feelings. Eventually, Green said, Reality began to sink in, and they decided to divorce to avoid any kind of volatile situation. Perhaps surprisingly, the green tone was understood when describing the dynamics. And I was shocked and upset about it, he said. But I can't be mad at her, and I didn't get upset with her because she didn't ask if it felt like that, it wasn't a choice she made, that's how she felt. Megan Fox and Machine Gun Kelly were seen together in May, Green assured fans that Fox hadn't cheated on him with Kelly, as the rumor mill claims. Fox and Kelly met for the first time after starring in the musician's music video for his song Bloody Valentine. In August, they made their Instagram connection official. On August 5, Fox shared a photo of herself and Kelly on Instagram with the caption. Beautiful boy,' she wrote. My heart is yours. Green, at first glance, did not take this post kindly. In response, he cast the shadow of Fox sharing photos of her children with the lightly edited caption Achingly Beautiful Boys... My heart is yours. The change in tone may come as a surprise to fans, given that Green wished his ex well during his appearance on the Hollywood Raw podcast. A source told Outlet: 'Brian is annoyed that she is so focused on her relationship with Machine Gun Kelly. He doesn't understand the need to post pictures on social media with silly captions to proclaim her love for him. They're not even divorced yet. It definitely annoys Brian. And it stings a little bit that Megan moved so fast. Megan's always been very personal, so Brian doesn't change. The 90210 alum often shares photos of his and Fox's kids on his Instagram, apparently not settling in well with Fox. In response to a then-edited post by Green that showed her youngest child, Journey, the Transformers alum commented: 'Why should Journey be in this photo? It's not hard to eviscerate them. Or select photos they're not in. I had a great Halloween with them yesterday, but I still notice how much they're missing from my social media. I know you love your kids. But I don't know why you can't stop using them to pose via Instagram. Her comment continued: 'You're so intoxicated with feeding the all-pervasive narrative that I'm an absent mother, and you're the perennial, eternally devoted father of the year. You have them half the time. Congratulations, you really are a remarkable man! Why do you need the internet to return to you your children love you? Despite obvious attempts to keep their separation calm, their dynamics are becoming increasingly difficult. Actually, divorce is hard. And making them look at the public makes them even harder.
